

1. Typical Home Wi-Fi Router

- Labels:
- Status LEDs (front/top panel)
 - Power - Power adapter input
 - WAN - Internet connection from modem/ISP
 - LAN1–LAN4 - Ethernet ports for computers, TVs, printers, etc.

2. Typical Network Switch

Labels:

Status LEDs - Power and Link/Activity indicators

Ports 1–8 - Ethernet (LAN) ports

Console - Management/configuration port

Power - Power input

Key Ports Identified

- WAN (Wide Area Network): Connects the router to the internet (modem/ISP).
- LAN (Local Area Network): Connects computers and other local network devices.
- Console: Used on managed switches for configuration and troubleshooting.
- Status LEDs: Indicate power, internet connectivity, network activity, and link status.